Transfer from Casablanca to Marrakech

You will be transferred in your Luxury Bus directly to Marrakech Approx. 2:30 Hour Ride along the direct highway

Hotel: Palais Ronsard a Relais et Chateaux property located in the heart of the exclusive Palmerais district. The property offers a luxury guest stay experience with the most breathtaking views and sumptuous surrounding gardens.

Enjoy lunch at Mamma Mia restaurant at 1pm. With a prime location in the heart of the red town in Gueliz, the Mamma Mia puts the Italian gastronomy culture in the forefront. Thanks to our experienced cooks, you will discover the different regions of Italy in Morocco.

Your restaurant Mammamia offers you fresh pastas, pizzas, desserts and a large choice of Moroccan, French and Italian wines. In its classic trattoria style, you will enjoy the best Italian dishes in Marrakech.

Visit the Koutoubia Minaret dominates the skyline of Marrakech. The 12th-Century Mosque is a master class in Moorish architecture.

Continue on to the Djemaa el Fnaa, the main square at the heart of the medina. In the late afternoon, food stalls appear next to rows of escargot sellers, snake charmers, musicians and story tellers

Enjoy dinner at Alfassia Aguedal at 8pm. For more than 30 years, AL FASSIA in Marrakech has been a reference in the Moroccan culinary scene. Our restaurant AL FASSIA Aguedal invites you every evening for a dinner outside in the freshness of our gardens or inside in one of the Moroccan lounges. AL FASSIA Guéliz opens its doors for lunch and dinner in complete privacy in the heart of Marrakech.

DAY THREE

Early morning yoga at the hotel

Get an early start. Breakfast at your Hotel. Your guide and driver at your disposal. Head to Dchiera Aghouatim ("Big Family"), a small Berber village. (about 40 minutes) Here we will have a private, outdoor cooking class hosted by a famous local chef.

Prepare your own traditional Moroccan dishes and enjoy them for lunch! Learn about Moroccan spices, including Ras al Hanout, the definitive spice of Moroccan cuisine.

Bake bread the traditional Moroccan way using an earthen, wood-fueled stove. The organic vegetables used in your dish are grown in the garden on site! While your tagine is cooking over the fire, take a walk (about 20 minutes) across a wide valley, where sheep graze, wild cactus fruit grows, and the days go on seemingly untouched by modern life. Wander through the village and visit with the locals who are happy to talk about the history of their community and their daily life

After lunch, break up to small groups to explore the endless souks of Marrakech. Each trade and specialty clusters together over the many alleyways and squares. You will be hosted by Richard DeMayo, an American designer who has called Marrakech home for almost 20 years. You will have access to local workshops and wholesalers which are closed to the public, but are special contacts of your host. The day will be planned around what is most interesting to the group! On your path, you may want to stop in one of the Argan cooperative shops. Argan oil is gaining notoriety for its cholesterol reducing qualities and use in beauty products.

Dinner is at 7pm at Le Tanjia Marrakech. The Tanjia Orientale asserts its style: the whole friendly atmosphere and warmth of a brewery in a very oriental decor. inspired by all the Moroccan tradition and art of living. Organized around a central courtyard, the Tanjia Orientale is on three floors, in a world of dark woods, decorated with touches of greenery that make up a frame in which the change of scenery is unparalleled, perfect for savouring dishes born of the great traditional Moroccan cuisine. Lunches on the terrace in front of a breathtaking view. on the historical site of the Mellah and unforgettable evenings are waiting for you there.

DAY FOUR

Breakfast at your Hotel

Your guide and driver at your disposal.

Head to Skoura via Ouarzazate. Ouarzazate is also known as "Morocco's Hollywood." On the way to Skoura make a visit of Ait ben Haddou and studio. The largest open air film studio, where the most famous desert landscapes were, and still are, being filmed. Then head to the spectacular fortress of Ait Ben Haddou. Also called the Ksar (fortified village), it was fortified in the 11th century. It held strategic importance because it was located in the Ounila Valley along one of the main trans-Saharan trade routes. The Ksar is also a group of earthen buildings surrounded by high walls, a traditional pre-Saharan habitat. The houses crowd together within the defensive walls, which are reinforced by corner towers. This village became a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1987 and several major films filmed here, including Gladiator and The Mummy. Enjoy lunch in town – Kasbah Dar Chamaa Restaurant. After Lunch some touring, including the Taourirt Kasbah, a magnificent structure built by the Glaoui. During the 16th century, Sheikh Abu al Warzazi, the amir of the qasba, established Saadi Control over the Sous-Draa region. It was first built in the 17th century by a powerful family, the Imzwarn, but was seized and expanded by the Glaoui family in the 19th century.

Enjoy lunch at Kasbah Dar Chamaa. Located in a privileged environment inside Ouarzazate's palm grove, our guests will enjoy magnificent views of the Atlas mountains at the Restaurant.

Guests then visit Ksar El Kabbaba Kasbah and Spa. Located in the heart of Skoura palm grove, and made with centenary old stones, Ksar El Kebbaba comes to life in the middle of lush greenness and precisely under the branches of an olive tree that witnessed the life of generations for more than three centuries.

Enjoy evening yoga session and then eat dinner and overnight at the hotel.

DAY FIVE

Enjoy morning yoga at the hotel.

After breakfast, Get an early start to your day. We will travel to the heart of the desert for the next part of our journey. The trip winds through the middle Atlas. Head to the Sahara to the beautiful city of Merzouga. Here, both the Todra and Dades Rivers have carved out cliff-sided canyons on their final 25-mile stretch through the mountains, leaving behind this series of reliefs and etches in the rock. Continue to Erfoud the gate of the desert and used to be the base camp for all the expeditions through the Merzouga dunes. Switch to a 4x4 vehicle and head into the Sahara Desert to your overnight encampment. Upon arrival, you will enjoy a camel ride through the dunes. Dinner under the tent and enjoy an incredible sunset and evening under the stars. Overnight at the Azawad Luxury Desert Encampment

Enjoy lunch at El Khorbat restaurant. Our restaurant is located inside the palm grove, at the bottom of the Ksar El Khorbat, and so it has a privileged situation. It includes a traditional Moroccan lounge and a wide terrace between palm trees, which is protected from the sun by roofs of logs and clay.

Bivouac Azawad is new luxury desert camp in the heart of famous Erg Chebbi Dunes. The camp is about one and half hours on camels from the ocean of the dunes. Upon arrival, you will enjoy a camel ride through the dunes. Dinner under the tent and enjoy an incredible sunset and evening under the stars.

Enjoy an evening yoga session at your luxury encampment.

Enjoy evening yoga at the hotel.

DAY TEN

Transfer from Fez to Casablanca This morning we head in land to Casablanca. Cosmopolitan Casablanca has roots dating to the Roman settlement of Anfa. The port became a key trading post for the Sultan in the 18th Century and was greatly expanded during the French protectorate. Recent years have seen efforts to restore the medina. Nearby, you will see various art deco facades.

Lunch at Le Cabestan. 1:30 p.m. Lunch at the Cabestan restaurant This restaurant has been an iconic location of for over 40 years. It was totally renovated in 2011 and is sporting a fresh new look. Located in Casablanca resolutely stylish and refined setting, which offers magnificent views of the Atlantic. Chef Fabien Caboy reigns in the kitchen offering you a choice of subtle and delicate Mediterranean dishes. A lounge bar and a very exclusive club are two more reasons to revisit this exceptional place.

Visit to the Hassan II Mosque. Completed in 1993, the Mosque can accommodate up to 25,000 worshippers making it the second largest in Islam today. This amazing structure took over five years to build, and is considered one of the most beautiful representations of the quality Moroccan craftsmanship in the country. Visitors will be amazed by the detail wood, marble, and tile handwork. The Hassan II Mosque is the only Mosque which allows non-Muslim visitors inside. The continue directly to Volibulis

Kenzi Towel Hotel - Located in one of Casablanca's Twin Center towers, this 5-star hotel offers panoramic views of the city, port and Hassan II Mosque. Guests have free access to the hot tub and indoor heated swimming pool. Magnificent views of Casablanca and an LCD TV with video games are offered in the rooms at Kenzi Tower. All rooms are furnished with luxury fabrics and some have a separate seating area.

8:00 p.m. Farewell dinner. Rick's Café, Casablanca the movie!

Romance and adventure. Who doesn't remember the famous words at the end of the movie? "Here's looking at you kid". Rick speaks it to bid Ilsa farewell and the odd, unsentimental phrase has come to be one of the most romantic lines in movie history.

Rick's Café is center of the movie action and definitely a fitting end for our time in magical Morocco. The fact is that Rick's Café has beautifully laid out interiors featuring a nice range of carefully chosen pieces of furniture and none of them is placed haphazardly. Replacing your living room carpet is maybe a trivial decision but at Ricks it's a serious matter.

Enjoy evening yoga at the hotel.
